

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson XIII.—Fourth Quarter,
For Dec. 28, 1913.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Quarterly Review, Read Josh. xxiv—Golden Text, John iii, 16—Commentary by Rev. D. M.
Stearns.

LESSON I.—Moses' Cry For Help, Num. xi, 10-18, 24, 25. Golden Text, Jas. v, 16, "The supplication of a righteous man availeth much in its working." The continual complaining of this rebellious people was enough to wear any one out and led Moses to say, "It is too heavy for me," but he always took everything to the Lord in prayer. This was one of the occasions when he felt unnecessarily burdened, as if he had to do it.

LESSON II.—Jealousy and Envy Punished, Num. xii, Golden Text, I Cor. xii, 4, 5, "Love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly." The devil is ever at work in the world and in the church, but it is sad indeed when he is allowed to enter a Christian household. It should be said of Christians, "See how these believers love one another."

LESSON III.—The Report of the Spies, Num. xiii, 1-3, 25-33. Golden Text, Rom. viii, 31, "If God is for us, who is against us?" To inquire if what God says is true or to question if He is able to do as He has said is indeed bad business. The shepherds did better who said, "Let us go and see this thing which has come to pass" (Luke ii, 15). When the Lord is as real to us as He was to Caleb and Joshua we will not consider giant difficulties of any kind.

LESSON IV.—The Sin of Moses and Aaron, Num. xx, 1-13. Golden Text, Ps. xix, 14, "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O Jehovah, my Rock and my Redeemer." The failure of Moses on the line of meekness after forty years of victory and intercession for such a people should humble us all in the dust before God and lead us never for one moment to trust ourselves in any way.

LESSON V.—Balak and Balaam, Num. xxii, 2-6; xxiv, 10-19. Golden Text, Jas. i, 8, "A double minded man, unstable in all his ways." Every phase of human nature is set before us in Scripture, but Balaam is one of the strangest, ready to do anything for money, even to curse the people of God, and yet afraid to go against God and ready to speak His messages, yet a leader of the Lord's people into sinful ways (Rev. ii, 14).

LESSON VI.—Abstinence For the Sake of Others, Rom. xiv, 7-21. Golden Text, Rom. xiv, 21, "It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth." As the Lord Jesus Christ is our only Saviour, He should be our only example, and His approval our only aim.

LESSON VII.—The Death of Moses, Deut. xxxiv, 1-12. Golden Text, Ps. cxvi, 15, "Precious in the sight of Jehovah is the death of His saints." In some respects the most remarkable death and burial on record, as his was also in some respects the most remarkable life ever lived. No other man who died and was buried was ever seen on earth hundreds of years later and recognized by mortals.

LESSON VIII.—Joshua the New Leader, Josh. i, 1-9. Golden Text, Josh. i, 9, "Be strong and of good courage." Remember the ten times this exhortation is found (see notes on this lesson) and associate with it the five "Be of good cheer" of the Lord Jesus (Matt. ix, 2, 22; xiv, 27; John xvi, 33; Acts xxiii, 11). Make much of the assurance "I will be with thee; I will not fail thee" (verse 5), and the "Be not afraid of" of verse 9.

LESSON IX.—Crossing the Jordan, Josh. iii, 7-17. Golden Text, Isa. xli, 10, "Fear thou not, for I am with thee." Remember the faith of Rahab and the story of the scarlet line; also the prominent place of the ark of the covenant in chapters iii and iv. See the object in dividing the Red sea and the Jordan, that the name of the Lord might be magnified and that all the people of the earth might know the hand of the Lord (Isa. ixlii, 12-14; Josh. iv, 24).

LESSON X.—The Fall of Jericho, Josh. vi, 8-11, 14-20. Golden Text, Mark ix, 23, "All things are possible to him that believeth." Note again the prominence of the ark of the covenant and the only sound heard, that of the trumpets of rams' horns. All victory is in the name of the Lord Jesus and by virtue of His precious blood. Before Him all Jerichos fall, all difficulties vanish.

LESSON XI.—The Sin of Achan, Josh. vii, 6-15. Golden Text, Num. xxxii, 23, "Be sure your sin will find you out." We are assured of victory and of being able to say, "Thanks be unto God, who always causeth us to triumph in Christ" (II Cor. ii, 14), but it is on condition of obedience and of pleasing, and not grieving the Holy Spirit.

LESSON XII.—The Word Made Flesh, John i, 1-18. Golden Text, John i, 14, "And the word became flesh and dwelt among us." The same one who created heaven and earth and talked with Adam and Eve, with Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses and Joshua, became one of us, sin excepted, by being born of Mary. He was unknown on earth except by a few; He is very little known now, but to all who receive Him He gives the privilege of becoming children of God.

DIARY FOR CHRISTMAS GIFT

Peculiar but Pleasing Remembrance Showing Absent Friend Was in Mind of Donor.On Thanksgiving day a man sat down and began to write to a distant friend. But he wrote only a few lines, and laid it aside. The next day he took up the pen, put down the new date, diary-fashion, and wrote some item of news of interest to them both.So each day from Thanksgiving till Christmas he added something to the letter, as he would in a diary, ending and mailing it just in time to reach his friend on Christmas morning. At the top he had written this message:"This is all the gift you get from me this year; but it carries more thought of you and more love, I imagine, than do some more costly ones I am sending. But just put it in your pocket for a dull January day. It will keep."And this was a letter from a man to a man! Damon and Pythias, David and Jonathan still live in our prosaic American business world.—Mother's Magazine.

PRESENTS BOUGHT FOR SHOW

Exploiting One's Own Vanity in Bestowal of Gifts is Poor Policy.The most miserable Christmas present, the kind that no human being is rich enough to afford, is that which is bought to make a show, to exploit one's own vanity.When you are tempted to buy a "show off" present, remember that the recipient has some rights. One who understands will be made unhappy by that kind of gift. You know yourself that when you receive a present that represents a great sacrifice on the part of the giver it makes you feel miserable, even when the right spirit is behind it.The cost in money is about the poorest of measures for any kind of a gift. The thoughtfulness in it, the recognition of a desire for things unasked for, the affection that goes with it, counts for much more. Every Christmas each of us receives a message that means more than the most expensive gift. Yet we forget that, sometimes in the perplexing selection of presents for others.—Woman's Home Companion.CLEANED
From the EXCHANGESHancock Lumberman Experiences Exciting Ride.James Maddsley, aged 40 years, a lumber man, residing at Hancock, was seriously injured on Wednesday afternoon while riding on the steps of a passenger coach of O. & W. train No. 3, while the train was passing through the Cadonia tunnel.According to the story which Maddsley told after he was injured, he had been at Fish's Eddy spending the day, intending to return to Hancock on train 3. When he reached the station at Fish's Eddy, the train was pulling out, and the vestibule doors were closed. Thinking he could attract the attention of the conductor or a trainman, he grasped the handles, and swung on the lower step, hanging outside the doors.He was unable to attract the attention of anyone, however, and when the train entered the Cadonia tunnel, after carrying him a distance of about five miles, he was struck by the side of the tunnel and swept to the ground. Luckily he fell alongside the track, and not under the cars.The injured man was found shortly after the train passed by the tunnel, and was taken to Hancock, where he was attended by Dr.
John H. Atchinson. Here it was found that several ribs were broken, and he probably received internal injuries.—Port Jervis Gazette.Wedding Ring Lost Thirty Years Recovered.Mrs. Maurie Coleman has been fortunate enough to recover her wedding ring, which was lost about twenty-nine years ago, when Mrs.
Coleman was living at Mongaup, N. Y.
The ring was returned to Mrs.
Coleman by a woman who found it while grading the yards around her new home.—Port Jervis Gazette.

Taylor Boosts Pay of Its Burgesses

The Taylor council discovered a new wrinkle in the law recently, and at a recent meeting boosted the salary of the burgesses $300. According to the statement made at the council meeting a law passed by the legislature some years ago fixes the salary of burgesses at $100 for every 1,000 of population up to 5000 and $50 for every 1000 after that. This would allow the borough council to fix the salary of the burgess at $750 per annum, and this action was taken. The office at present pays $500 per year, but the incoming burgess, James Morris, will benefit by the move.The O. & W. company has commenced the construction of a large ice house in Walton and expects to begin the construction of another smaller one beside their track in Delhi in a few days. With this ice house the company expects to make Walton a general icing point for fruit and other produce cars, and for such milk cars as are not already iced through when they reach this place.Justice Carpenter of Hancock, has the distinction of breaking all the local speed records in marrying a pair of youthful lovers. They came to his office, announced their purpose, and he asked the man if he wanted to marry the woman and the woman if she wanted to marry the man. They both replied in the affirmative and the justice then said:
"By the law of the great State of New York I pronounce you man and wife. You're hitched. Excuse me, I've got to catch a train." And he immediately flitted away.—Liberty Register.The entire estate of William Deering, the Harvester Manufacturer, who died in Florida recently, left to his immediate family, according to the will which was probated Thursday an estate valued at $12,000,000. Miss Marjorie Ward is expected to receive the major portion of the estate of her father, the late A. Montgomery Ward.
By the will filed the estate is placed at $15,000,000.Without doubt, the largest baby in Southern Michigan for his age, is Carl Young Kennedy, 9-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kennedy of Scipio Township. The baby weighed 13 pounds at birth and now weighs 30 pounds. It has a chest measurement of 22 inches and a waist measurement of 24 inches.The people who need more religion are: The man who lets his horse stand all day in the rain without a blanket; the man who grows like a beast with a sore head when his wife asks him for money; the woman who whispers it around that some one else is not just what she ought to be; the man who walks the streets with his hands in his pockets while his wife carries a dog and says he can't afford the home newspaper.In Williamsport the Board of Trade is at work on a proposition having as its object the loaning of money at low rates of interest to thrifty men, in that vicinity, who want farms of their own but have not the means at hand to acquire and stock them. This is surely boosting agriculture.In his eagerness to recover a chest containing about $400, the savings of a number of years, Solomon Brandt, 79 years old, a civil war veteran, was cremated when his little cabin on the top of the Allegany mountains, about three miles from Berlin was burned one day last week.Ralph De Palma, who captured the 1912 Vanderbilt cup race in Milwaukee, announces that he will sue for the $3-000 purse which was to have gone to the winner. De Palma said he heeded the money for Christmas.A big electric light and power merger in Susquehanna county came to light last Tuesday when charters were granted at Harrisburg for seven electric light companies.GOODBYE DANDRUFF USE PARISIAN SAGEIf you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off.
Freshen up the scalp—lubricate it—and dandruff disappears.Surely try a 50c bottle of Parisian Sage. It cleanses the hair, nourishes it, stops falling hair and itching scalp. It is just what you need to make the scalp healthy and immediately remove dandruff.
